

THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

24 July 1976

Mr. Richard Stubbing
Office of Management and Budget
New Executive Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Dick:

This is a belated thank you for giving me your think-piece concerning intelligence. We see a number of practical problems in the approach you suggest, but your proposed concentration on outputs and their assessment is an intriguing one. We have put your ideas in the hopper for further development.

Thank you again for joining us on the occasion of the swearing-in ceremony and for being good enough in letting us have your interesting suggestion.

Faithfully yours,
